Of Note:

The first two titles of the Rafi and Rosi Coquí Series were published by Harper Collins. After they went out of print, Lee & Low Books bought the rights and re-published them. I have listed the first two titles under both HarperCollins and Lee & Low Books.

I have authored board books, picture books, beginner readers, middle grade collections, and one YA memoir. I have created both fiction and non-fiction. I write in both English and Spanish. When I've written the Spanish version I consider it an original version and it's listed as an original title.

Jay and Ben, co-authored with Katharine Swanson, is a book for children in the autism spectrum and uses Boardmaker symbols. When published it was the first one of its kind.

All books listed have been illustrated by me, except Alicia Afterimage. The illustrations in the memoir are Alicia Betancourt's art. I selected from her illustrations to design the book.

Titles with Staying Power:

Arroz con leche: Popular Songs and Rhymes from Latin America— in print since 1989

Golden Tales: Myths, Legends and Folktales from Latin America- in print since 1996

Salsa Stories—in print since 2000
